

Scholarship Bulletin January 2013

Happy New Year!! I hope you have fond memories of the holiday season. As you make your New Year's Resolutions, don't forget to resolve to earn the best possible grades this year.

For those of you planning to attend college, you should think about the following during the month of January:

- If your college wants to see seventh-semester grades, be sure to give the form to your counselor after first semester.
- If you are applying to colleges online, be sure to have your high school send a transcript--it goes to colleges separately, and by mail

Please refer to the following websites, as you may find them helpful in your college, scholarship, or job search.

Miscellaneous

- University of Southern California (USC)-Many rising sophomores, juniors, and seniors invest their summers in attending rigorous college preparation programs. When they attend summer programs at the University of Southern California (USC), high school students balance work and play as they prepare for college in the nation's entertainment headquarters-Los Angeles, California. If you are seeking an academic challenge and still hope to have some fun this summer, you are encouraged to apply to the pre-college "Summer@USC" program for high school students. Visit www.summer.usc.edu for more information and instructions about how to apply.
- Washington University in St. Louis-Every summer an academically talented group of high school students gather at Washington University in St. Louis to get an early taste of college life. They take college courses, participate in academic institutes, and attend specialized seminars that give them a head start on their path to college all while living on campus. Visit www.summerexperiences.wustl.edu for more information about their programs and how to apply.
- Lawrence Tech University-Lawrence Tech will be hosting a Financial Aid Night on Wednesday, January 16, 2013 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. During this information session, students will have the opportunity to listen to our Director of Financial Aid, Dee King, provide an overview of financial aid and scholarship eligibility and requirements. Ms. King will also discuss outside scholarship sources and private, state, and federal programs.
